EXPERIENCE

- Data for Afghanistan Remote
Director of Research 02/2025 - Present
  - Collaborating with Dr Ahmad Zia Wahdat to compile datasets and visualisations on Afghanistan for empirical research (<https://dataforafghanistan.org/posts>).
- UK Civil Service - Department for Work and Pensions London, UK
Fast Stream Economist Post-DTA (SEO-equivalent) 09/2021 - 09/2023
  - Post 1: Contract Management & Partner Delivery Division (Finance Group)
    - * Led two employment programme impact evaluations worth £1 billion using Propensity Score Matching on HMRC/DWP microdata, line managing a Statistician, with results informing ministerial policy decisions.
    - * Conducted real-time analyses using SAS and SQL, delivering accurate responses to ministerial briefings, Freedom of Information requests, and Parliamentary Questions under tight deadlines.
  - Post 2: Working Age Modelling and Forecasting Division (Policy Group)
    - \* Contributed to the development, validation and successful launch of a department-critical agent-based dynamic microsimulation model in AnyLogic/Java covering  $\approx 6$  million Universal Credit claimants using billions of observations, integrating machine learning-derived model inputs and securing stakeholder approval for outputs.
    - * Applied advanced SAS programming (Enterprise Miner & Studio) to merge DWP datasets, optimising complex variable interactions and achieving significant runtime efficiency.
  - Grade Manager for DWP Economist Placement Students (08/2022 - 09/2023)
    - * As one of three Grade Managers, led end-to-end recruitment and assessment of placement economists across the Government Economic Service, coordinating with Chief Economists and HR whilst overseeing sifting, logistics, and assessment moderation.
    - * Provided pastoral and professional support to placement economists, coaching them through technical assessments and mock interviews in economic theory, introducing structured exit surveys, and adapting communication to diverse audiences, from senior leadership to volunteers and across technical and non-technical colleagues.
- University of Exeter Devon, UK
Research Assistant - Department of Economics (Internship) 05/2019 - 06/2019
  - Assisted Dr Surajeet Chakravarty with experimental design and supported a postgraduate student in data collection. Also developed a thesis proposal on British Afghan cultural identity.
